AUSTRALIAN INSTITUTE OF SPORT 2009 Scholarships

Applications are invited from Australian sportsmen and sportswomen for scholarships to be undertaken at the Australian Institute of Sport (AIS) in 2009.

Current or pending Australian citizenship is the normal requirement for selection as an AIS scholarship holder. The selection criteria vary among the sports but, as a general rule, successful candidates would normally be competing at national championship level.

Athletes interested in the following sports must apply on the official application forms available from <http://www.ausport.gov.au/ais/scholarships> by close of business on the date noted below:

Archery 12 September 2008
